

Today I make the choice

I recently saw an estate agent's card with these words printed at the back. I thought it quite an inspiration for the day:

Today I make the choice.....

- To have a positive day
- Treat the people I work with as the best in the business
- Treat customers as the most important
- Look for opportunities and not problems
- Do things today and not tomorrow
- Generate enthusiasm in my company, my family, my life
- Humble myself not to be above others but to accept all
- Remind myself that self motivation is the key to success
- That the business and life is FUN!!
- To smile
